

Claire Sutherland MBA

Claire has been working in professional development for the past 25 years. First and foremost, she is a practitioner who brings real organisational experience to the programmes she designs and delivers. Her focus has been with professional development and helping people to navigate personal and organisational change.

Her work spans a number of high-profile public and private sector organisations, including several FTSE100 companies. Clients include Alstom Grid, HM Prison Service, HM Revenue & Customs, Goodrich, IMI plc, Universities of Warwick, Barclaycard, Severn Trent Water, Sainsbury, NFU Mutual, National Grid and LVMH. She delivers specific programmes in emotional intelligence, coaching, communication and performance management and leadership development. Claire's work takes her all over the world.

She has an MBA from Aston, is qualified in MBTI and a range of other psychometric instruments. She has a Diploma in Management Coaching & Mentoring, a certificate in Transactional Analysis, a Cert in Sport Psychology, is an NLP practitioner, and a member of the Centre for Applied Positive Psychology. Claire is an associate member of the Institute of Directors.